Know Your Customer Basics

Financial institutions in Ghana must verify the identity of every customer. Dr. Mensah notes that 2.5 million accounts were reviewed in 2024. The penalty for a breach can reach GH₵ 1,250.50 per day.

Risk rating

Customers are rated low, medium or high risk. High-risk customers need enhanced due diligence, e.g. source-of-funds checks, before the account opens on 01/03/2026.

Onboarding steps

1. Collect a valid Ghana Card.

2. Screen the name against sanctions lists.

3. Record the result in the KYC file.

Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged. Each step is logged.

Record keeping

Records are kept for at least five years after the relationship ends. Records are kept for at least five years after the relationship ends. Records are kept for at least five years after the relationship ends. Records are kept for at least five years after the relationship ends. Records are kept for at least five years after the relationship ends.